

The Loop Walk

START: Don's Table at the top of Evans Street, Rosewater

- Walk east through the Community Garden and continue east through the old Gillman Yards to Cleveland Terrace.
- Here you will meet the train line, the central feature of the Loop.
- Walk south on the Loop to Grand Junction Road. Here you will need to CROSS the road to continue the Loop.
- Follow the train line in a westerly direction to Newcastle Street. CROSS the road near the Rosewater Footy Club to continue to walk along the Loop.

There is a marked pathway through all the new plantings.

- CROSS over Canning Street and continue to follow the train line.
- Turn right into Russell Street and walk in a northerly direction to the Grand Junction Road Underpass tunnel. When you emerge from the tunnel you will be on Henry Street which will take you to the Port Adelaide Bikeway.
- Turn left onto the bikeway and walk around the Aviation Museum to rejoin the bikeway.
- Follow the bikeway to Gray Terrace and CROSS. Continue east on the bikeway which will lead you back to Don's Table.

FINISH: Voilà 10,000 steps!
